

China's energy storage power station project successfully connected to the grid

BEIJING, January 14, 2025--The world's first 300 MW compressed air energy storage (CAES) demonstration project, "Nengchu-1," was fully connected to the grid in Yingcheng, central ...

China s energy storage power station project successfully connected to the grid

