

With the aim of increasing the aforementioned figures, the National Electric Energy Commission of Guatemala published Resolution CN-69-2023, which stipulates the technical regulations for ...

Real-life values and charging performance depend on vehicle equipment, the state of charge and health of the battery, battery temperature, individual driving profile, use of auxiliary users, ambient temperature, and the charging power provided at the charging station.

Guatemala New Energy Charging Station Energy

