

Marshall Islands Communications Green Base Station Equipment Processing Factory

What is the communication system in the Marshall Islands?

The majority of communication is under the responsibility of Marshall Islands National Telecommunications Authority. Newspapers: The Marshall Islands Journal is a dual language, once a week publication. It is the newspaper of record for the Marshall Islands. Telephones: Telex services: Radio broadcast stations: AM 3, FM 4, shortwave 0 (1998)

What projects are being built in the Marshall Islands?

o Design and Construction of the Republic of the Marshall Islands Capitol Building complex. o Construction of the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration (Majuro) Weather Station. o Construction of the Majuro Airport Hanger Facility. o Design and Construction of the Republic of the Marshall Islands Convention Center.

Why is PII a leading contractor in the Marshall Islands?

The growth and capacity of PII in being technically and financially competent has enhanced its leadership in securing and completing for sophisticated contracting work in the Marshall Islands. The company's ability to compete with foreign contractors has assured employment for its majority local Marshallese citizen employees.

What did PII do in the Marshall Islands?

o Construction of numerous Schools scattered throughout the Marshall Islands. o Road Pavement. o Design and construction of the U.S Embassy (Majuro) including security upgrades. PII pioneered domestic airline service and private shipping service to the remote outer islands of the Marshall's.

Marshall Islands Communications Green Base Station Equipment Processing Factory

Web: <https://edukacja-aktywna.pl>

